Dear Parents and Carers,

OFSTED Inspection Report

I am absolutely delighted to enclose a copy of the OFSTED Inspector's report which has been published today. I do hope that you will take time to read the full report, which opens with the following comments:

"This is an outstanding school. 'Our children love school' and 'The school has done everything they possibly can for our child' are typical comments from the very many parents who made their views known to the inspector. The school has gone from strength to strength since the time of the last inspection. The headteacher is passionate about improving the school. Senior leaders have developed a very strong staff team. All are united in their desire to provide the very best education for pupils here."

Very few schools are judged to be outstanding, so I am sure you will agree that the Inspector's judgement of our school as an 'outstanding' school is a highly positive endorsement of all the hard work, dedication and commitment shown by the headteacher, all the staff, parents and carers, Governors, Friends of the school and of course the children. The Inspector undertook a very thorough assessment of all aspects of our school life over 2 days in early December. Thank you to all who contributed to the inspection process.

I am particularly pleased that the school has achieved this judgement, as you may know that recently OFSTED has yet again 'raised the bar' in terms of the standards expected of schools in order to qualify for an 'outstanding' rating. This means that our school is providing the very best standards of achievement, care and challenge to our children.

On behalf of the Governing Body, I would like to congratulate and thank Mrs Williamson; all the staff and other members of our school community. It is a phenomenal result, and deserves to be celebrated.

With very best wishes,

Mr Ian Juden,
Chair of Governors
